ET The Fulton Building and Mutual Loan Association will hold a Puolic Meeting on THURSDAY EVENING. March 25, at Chatham Hall, No. 3 Chathammeurs. An Address will be delivered, explaining the objects and sdwantages of this Association to those who desire to invest money profitably and safely, and all those, both mile and female, who labor for a living. This Association offers unequaled advantages to its members.

Among the numerous advantages, may be mentioned the following: 7 per cent. will be allowed on six months dues or over, when paid in advance; ana should say member wish to withdraw after being a member air months, an additional? per cent. will be allowed, thereby securing a double interest, at least three times as much as allowed by the Savings Bank. This is an entire new feature in Building Associations, and well worthy the attention of all taking an interest with the advancement of the Mechanic and Workingman.

To those who wish to remain members until the Association closes, a much larger profit is onde on their invastment, or if they prefer money. It will be advanced to easile them to build a house to live in, thereby enabling them to be their own landords and compete in the great struggle of life with capitalists and moneyed men.

Linkes are particularly invited to attend, as they can subscribe for one or more shares, and hold them in their own name, with the same rights and privileges as the opposite x. Parents can subscribe for shares for their children, which will enable them to educate and far nish a capital to start business with at some future day. "It is subly edited and beautifully printed, and is issued by the editor.

"Dr. Duron can report a cave or simple detail of facts with elearness and brevity, but his editorial gossip is occasionally wild, frequently abusive, rom rikable for personality, of elegant expression, but not very cleanly imagination. An ood mixture of violated fact and unregulated facty, flowers and fith, learning and folly. He is the Theraites of the medical profession, bearing much abuse, set railing vigorously, spite of the hard knocks it brings. Notwithatanding this, the independence and talent of the editor rive to its pages much interest and we are not surprised to learn that a large tumber of subscribers endure the cut for the sake of the good by which it is uccompanied.

The New York Medical Times anys: 'It is bought, rend and approved; therefore, its sakers, its clampes is coarse descriptions, its charges and its reasoning must be true.' [The two editors are liberally acticed in its neares. Ed. Scalpe!]
